

John C. Kinna

Memorial Scholarship

The John C. Kinna Memorial Scholarship has been established by his family in Memory of John C. Kinna. Mr. Kinna was a teacher and administrator at Fairfield Public Schools from 1956-1989.

This Scholarship is being established to assist students with disabilities to reach their potential. Scholarship money can be used for training, recreation, education, job coaching, camps or any other activity that would enhance the quality of life of said applicant.

Applicants must have a diagnosed disability that impairs the physical or academic performance of the individual. Applicants must fill out the scholarship application to request scholarship funds. A description of how the funds will be used and how it will enhance the quality of life of the applicant must be included. The application will be reviewed by the scholarship committee to determine the monetary award.

This scholarship will be in effect until scholarship funds have been depleted.
